Program Description

Vocational Opportunities, Inc. provides vocational evaluation services, which will assist individuals enter or re-enter the local labor market. Services are provided in a friendly and professional manner.

Vocational Opportunities, Inc. requires active client participation to identify vocational goals that are consistent with an individual's interests, work values, personality, abilities and work restrictions, if any. Vocational Opportunities, Inc. provides each client with a better understanding of work, the training needed to perform work, how to apply for and obtain work, and how work affects one's life.

Vocational Opportunities, Inc. prepares a written vocational evaluation report for the case manager and client which includes: a summary of all components of the evaluation process, an interpretation of test results, and recommendations which include specific job goals along with a step-by-step process to achieve goals. A meeting to review all results with the case manager can also be arranged.
